Antología (Religion) (Spanish Edition) santa Teresa de Jesus

En 1562 Teresa de Jesús fundó el convento de San José de Ávila, el primero de las carmelitas y, a instancias de Francisco de Soto y Salazar, su confesor, comenzó a escribir el Libro de mi vida, influido por sus lecturas de libros de caballería y comparado por algunos con las Confesiones de san Agustín. Aquí expone sus preocupaciones humanas y religiosas, sus trabajos y experiencias anteriores. La jerarquía eclesiástica denunció el libro a la Inquisición y pretendió deportar a su autora a Hispanoamérica, pero fray Luis de León, san Juan de la Cruz y el teólogo fray Domingo Báñez lograron que el castigo se redujera y fuese confinada en Toledo. Esta actividad frenética contrasta con los textos de esta antología, mucho más domésticos y, en ocasiones, extremadamente personales.
