Frozen Hands, Warm Hearts

Charlie was born the night of the thousand-year blizzard. Her mother and father thought she was the most beautiful baby they had ever seen. She had hair as white as snow and blue eyes that sparkled like crystal-clear water in a stream. As Charlie grew up, she carried the cold of the thousand-year blizzard with her wherever she went.

Sometimes the other children in her school teased her because they all had to wear their coats and heavy scarves when they were around her. They called her “The Ice Princess.”

Their teasing made Charlie sad and when she was sad the space all around her got even colder.

But some people could see through the cold that surrounded her and know her for the warm, kind, caring girl she was growing up to be. Her friends Tanya and Crista loved her. Her parents knew that no one could warm their hearts like Charlie. Even though her little brother Zach fought with her sometimes, he loved her too. And, of course, she had her little Siberian Husky puppy Snow that her dad had brought home for her. Snow loved the cold just as much as Charlie!
