UPDATED WITH NEW FOREWORD IN SEPTEMBER, 2013! New Foreword written by Jim Wilson, President, Canadian Lyme Disease Foundation (CanLyme). The book includes tips and tricks for getting treatment and testing if you live in Canada. ABOUT THE BOOK: Lyme is becoming a public health crisis in Canada. An estimated 20,000 Canadians become sick with Lyme every year, but patients are not allowed access to internationally recognized tests and are denied successful treatments. The disease is readily treatable with conventional antibiotics, even in its chronic form. A call for action from patients, doctors, reserachers, and politicians, this book contains life-saving resources with over 450 pages. It also includes access information to reliable tests for Lyme Disease not available in Canada, as well as effective treatment guidelines.
