The Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary: Anne Catherine Emmerich is a well known person within the Catholic church. Anne was one to have been greatly affected by the supernatural, and says that she has received many visions throughout her life. They were written down and then published. Life of the Blessed Virgin Mary was not finished by the time the scribe had passed away, so the book was published incomplete. The book explains in detail about Mary's birth and life. It has information on various years of Our Lord's childhood, the Holy Family, and the rest of Mary's life.

The Dolorous Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ: This is an account of the events leading up to the Crucifixion of Christ by a 19th century German stigmatic and visionary, Anne Catherine Emmerich. This once-obscure book recently achieved a much higher profile because it was used as an inspiration for the screenplay of Mel Gibson's controversial movie, The Passion of the Christ. A riveting 'you are there' account of this pivotal event, the story is told with great attention to small details, many not mentioned in the Gospels. This is not a novelization; it is a recounting of Emmerich's ecstatic visions, which were accompanied by painful and mysterious physical torments. Emmerich was practically illiterate and this book was dictated by her, which makes the fact that the narrative is so internally coherent all the more compelling.
