If I had had the wits to see through his charm, I would have run like the scared rabbit life had made of me.

Sand in the Wind is the fourth story in the contemporary women's fiction Prime Time series. Set in Egypt, this story follows two friends as they discover a depth and dimension to their personal histories they never could have imagined.

In this story, we see the depth of the friendship between Anna and Alina.

Anna uncovers more about Helen Dunlop and settles an issue arising from Helen's past.

Anna and Alina travel from Canada to Egypt on holiday. They meet up with Philip in Luxor and have several startling encounters amid exciting and exotic locations.

A future romance blossoms in this novel!
