The Apocalypse Mom Trilogy: Apocalypse Mom - Apocalypse Road Trip - Home Sweet Apocalypse

Elizabeth L. Jones

Apocalypse Mom - Volume 1 Ellie Campbell considers herself an ordinary woman. She's a thirty-something wife and mother who's a little out of shape and a lot frazzled. She's always gone along with her husband's latest hobby of prepping, but never given it much thought, until the day comes when everything stops working. With her husband unaccounted for and her kids across town, she must set out to rescue her children and bring them home. As days go by, she must discover her own strengths, and just might realize that she's not so ordinary after all. See The End Of The World As We Know It through her eyes in this humorous, tongue-in-cheek tale of the apocalypse. Apocalypse Road Trip - Volume 2 Ellie Campbell and her family have survived The End Of The World As We Know It, but now they face a new trial, finding a new home. With their neighborhood outside Mobile, Alabama becoming too dangerous to stay in, Ellie, her husband, and their children join with their neighbors, Betty and Marvin, and head to a tiny cabin hidden deep in the woods. Follow Ellie and her family on their road trip in this humorous, sarcastic and often irreverent tale of the apocalypse. Home Sweet Apocalypse - Volume 3 Ellie Campbell and her family are back in this conclusion to the Apocalypse Mom Trilogy. They've survived the immediate days after The End of The World As We Know It, made the trip safely to Marvin's cabin in Carlton, Alabama, and now face new trials as they integrate into the community and adjust to a new way of life. Ellie struggles to maintain her strength and sense of humor as they face sickness, death, food shortages, and the harshness of everyday life, and in the end, emerge stronger than ever before
