The story continues...

Four months after meeting devastatingly handsome and intensely passionate Enzo Milano, Ava is sure her fairy tale has come true. But how well can you know a man after just a few months?

Enzo's womanizing past is just something she can't ignore, as much as she would like to. Faced with a delusional former employee on her wedding day, Ava thinks it couldn't possibly get crazier than that. But it does.

His secretive past comes to light in the most public way, and Ava gets a glimpse into the cold, dark man he was before her love opened him up. Will this new information change her feelings towards her prince charming?

Ava and Enzo must tackle the past as they prepare for the future. Jealousy, insecurity, secrets, and even lies come between them and their blissful happiness. Will it all be too much for a new relationship to bear? Or will their intense love for each other endure any trial?

After the Rain is book two in the Sunflower Trilogy.

Due to explicit language, adult themes, and sexual content, this book is intended for mature audiences.
