TAKE OFF THE MASK by Cassandra Cole

Shy and reserved, Alice Fisher is deathly afraid of telling her older sister, Maureen, the truth about her sexual orientation.

She's a lesbian, and happens to be going steady with someone back home, though there are doubts about her partner Jenna's fidelity.

Maureen, the kept wife of a rich doctor, has had her suspicions all along.

After an ugly confrontation with Maureen at a swanky party, Alice storms off, feeling totally rejected and alone, then her world changes when she sees...

Rachel Nolan, a childhood friend who rescues her from the misery and embarrassment caused by Maureen. Truth be told, Alice has always had a mad crush on Rachel, although Rachel appears to be straight as an arrow.

Unexpected truths are soon revealed that have Alice torn about what to do with her life.

Should she confess how she's felt all these years to Rachel, or should she return home to pick up the pieces of what could be a doomed relationship with Jenna?
