There has to be a better way

Heartfelt Memorial Services provides value to families and individuals who are:

- anticipating and preparing for the death of a loved one.
- having “The Conversation” with their elders about end-of-life choices and options.
- looking for ways to bring together friends and family with a sense of unity and integrity, even when different belief systems may appear to be a stumbling block.
- creating an inspiring celebration-of-life / tribute gathering while the person is still there to enjoy it.
- wishing to ease the burden on the family by planning for your own eventual death.

Professionals and Service Providers value the unique ideas and advice to serve their clients.

Custom content editions of the book are appreciated tools for marketing, training and gifts.

HeartfeltMemorialServices.com contains endorsements, an Inside Look and inspiring content in print and video that complements our book.
