Exegeting Nature & Scripture: Hermeneutics & Reality (IBRI Occasional Papers Book 10) Robert C. Newman

There are significant parallels between the two activities of interpreting nature and interpreting the Bible, and both are influenced by one's theology (even if we think we do not have a theology!). Here we sketch various diverse approaches to these matters, especially the theories and practices of interpretation espoused by the more orthodox Christian scientists and theologians. What are God's intentions both in nature and Scripture? Can theology squelch research? We make some suggestions for how we think interpretation of both nature and Scripture should proceed.
