I Jus' Wanna Leave This Nigga: Part 2 Mesha Mesh

It's only so much a girl can take from the man that was supposed to protect her heart, worship her body and conquer her soul. Ty used to be that man for Lyric, but that changed for them, so long ago. See, Ty has drug Lyric through the mud for the very last time. She's tired and fed up! She refuses to continue to live life to the beat of his drum, and she has been put through hell at his hands for the very last time. She is bent but whether Ty believes it or not; Lyric is far from broken! After becoming free from him, the lines between faith and despair began to blur. Her faith is tested; she feels lost and confused, and mostly she's afraid. Lyric knows that there is a long road ahead of her, which won't be easy, but she has people in her life that she knows genuinely love her and will help her through this turbulence time in her life. Delusional, Ty believes that he's dealing with the same insecure Lyric that he's used to. Time apart will make her miss me, and she'll come running back home where she belongs, or so Ty thought. What he failed to realize was, Lyric was a changed woman! No longer timid, no longer afraid of him. When he realizes that getting her back would be a harder task than he originally thought, he devises a plan. Ty selfishly stalks her, from one place to another in hopes that he could get her to change her mind. After seeing Lyric and Blessing together, and her appearing to have moved on, the green-eyed monster rears its ugly head. Ty's jealous and enraged, and he won't stop until he gets her back! Blessing loves Lyric, and all he wants from her is to want him just as much as he wants her, but he won't force it. On the outside looking in, everything is just that but he doesn't feel it. She tugs at his heartstrings, pulling him in so close, only to shut him down. However, Lyric isn't ready to give him the one thing she treasures most; her heart. She's guarded, but he's patient and tries to show her that he'll always be there for her. One things for sure, though, if she doesn't want to be his after all he has done to prove himself; he will be forced to move on.
