The Song of Songs Nee Watchman

The Song of Songs is one of the finest love poems ever written. Over the centuries its beautiful language and sublime imagery have enchanted readers. But why is this tender love poem included in Scripture? How is it to be interpreted? To many this is a mystery. Watchman Nee believes it is possible to discover within the poem all the principles needed to develop the spiritual life. In this commentary he explores the relationship between the individual believer and the Lord. His insights are for all who long to intensify their love and by so doing find overwhelming joy and complete satisfaction.
